7th Nov 2016

Attendance—we will be holding an informal coffee afternoon with our Education Welfare Worker, Claire Butters on Tuesday 8th November to focus on any issues you may have with attendance and ways in which we can help. Invitations going out soon.....

Flu consent letters—please remember to send your completed letters back into school—thanks

Please could you remind children to collect bikes / scooters after school, we are unable to store them inside overnight. We will be having bike/scooter racks installed soon.

Uniform—reminder that footwear should be black school shoes, trainers are not permitted.

PE Kits—please make sure kits are in school on the relevant days.

If you have any concerns or issues (big or small!!) regarding school, please, please come in and talk to us about them. We are here to help!

Remember the class drop in sessions if you need to speak to teachers after school. If you cant make these sessions please use planners or contact school and we can arrange a convenient time to meet.

Dinner Money — Dinners must be paid for in advance or when taken. We will not allow arrears to build up. Please bring all outstanding amounts up to date.

School Council news

Our School council met on Tuesday, 1st November to discuss fundraising for children in need. We decided to join in with the theme for the year 'Spotacular' and will be running a 'Spotacular Art Work Competition'

Children will need to pay 50p to enter and all funds raised will go to the Children in Need fund.

In addition on Friday 18th November children will be invited to attend school in non-uniform wearing something spotty, children are asked to bring a £1 donation on the day.
